

JEWELLERY ARTISTS GUILD OF REGINA

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Jewellery Artists Guild of Regina is a collaboration of local jewellery designers and artisans ranging from part time enthusiasts to dedicated full time professionals. The Guild is an incorporated non-profit fine arts organization whose goal is to engage its members in an exchange of creative and technical knowledge about the art of jewellery fabrication. We encourage and promote the highest standards of craftsmanship and artistry among our members and in all events affiliated and associated with the Guild.

Criteria for Membership

Jewellery artists who design and fabricate high quality original handmade items, pay an annual membership fee of $35, and agree to participate in the business of the Jewellery Artists Guild of Regina, are eligible for membership in the Guild. All applications are reviewed by the Board of Directors.

Holly Ripplinger – Chicsation's Jewellery Design

My design style is understated elegance, with some pieces being not so understated.

I love Swarovski Crystals and you will find them in almost all of my Designs.

I enjoy working in Copper and Silver and have taken many classes many classes at the Neil Balkwill Centre, Jewelry 1, Jewelry 2, Jewelry 3, Jewelry Design, Enameling, Fold Forming, Fine Silver Fusing. I have taken other workshops at Bead Plus and have run some workshops at Bead Plus.

I like to incorporate different styles together, for example, chain maille with metalsmithing.

I have participated in many shows, including Jewelry One Shows, Cream of the Crop, What Women Want, The Ultimate Women's Show and exhibit with Scott Nicholson Fine Arts.
